

I support the ability to tap lines of communications, I believe the governments primary role is to keep us safe. And you have to be able to see/hear what is going on to be able to do this. I do not want this system abused however, I think if you are going to make a system, PLEASE make sure it is very secure and only used by people with high security clearance. That is all.